Needless Investigation.

The S. F. Chronicle, Argonaut and Mail accuse the Mint and Custom House Investigating Committee with whitewashing. As the report of the Committee reads to us it has the ring of integrity. Pinney is the accuser and Pixley, who has a strong personal feeling in the matter, is his backer in the Chronicle and Argonaut. The Mail is simply interested as a mean underhanded assailant, and its editor merely vents his spleenetic nature under the false guise of Democracy. We are personally acquainted with Gen. LaGrange, Supt. of the Mint, and know him to be an honest man. As far as we can learn from the report of the Committee, all of whom are first class men, and who could truthfully say ought else of Sherman, Linderman and Doyle? also from the Call, Bulletin and Alta, we are satisfied that no investigation was necessary, and that a considerable sum has been, comparatively speaking, uselessly and extravagantly spent. It should be that newspapers that cause the nation a needless expense in these matters should be sued by the Government in a joint action with its faithful officers, for libel, that the injury done might be recompensed and the principal of the money paid out by the Government to prosecute the investigations clamored for recovered from the unprincipled accusers. A needless expenditure of government moneys should subject those who occasion it to proper punishment by law. A ring in a party does not represent the party to which it claims allegiance. These will always go over to the strongest party. They live by ring business and the minority party does not afford them an opportunity to basely enrich themselves. Hence the honest men of both parties and especially of the dominant one, should unite in driving from office and in inflicting due punishment to all official offenders. A political organization injures its influence and plants the seeds of its own decline by screening from punishment those who foist their dishonesty and criminal audacity upon the party. There is no more occasion for a party to be burdened by barnacles or political thieves than it is its duty to impose upon the people when in power its "territorial bias," under the mask of patriotism. Nor will useless investigations which bear evidence of of political finesse and enduring strength, or tend to perpetuate the life and growth of the party which institute them. An approximation at least to honesty and party integrity is the basis upon which a political organization can alone hope to maintain a healthful growth and exert an abiding control and influence.

A most gigantic swindle was brought to light at Kansas City on the 18th, by the arrest of J. R. Hall, Edward L. Stevens and General Miller, on a requisition from Governor Hubbard, of Texas, on a charge of forging land titles and issuing deeds for large tracts of land in Texas. The swindle originated with Hall and a man named Thomas Tullis, of Austin.

There is a minister in Reno named Dr. Hama. His congregation drink in his every word.—Gold Hill News.

We can add our testimony to that of the News. We also acknowledge the pleasure of a call from the Rev. gentleman. He will remain as pastor of the Congregational Church for at least three months.

SENATORS WHOSE TERMS EXPIRE.—At the close of the present Congress in 1879 the terms of the following Senators will expire: Spencer (Rep.), Alabama; Dorsey (Rep.), Arkansas; Sargent (Rep.), California; Chaffee (Rep.), Colorado; Barnum (Dem.), Connecticut; Conner (Rep.), Florida; Gordon (Dem.), Georgia; Oglesby (Rep.), Illinois; Morton (Rep.), Indiana; Alison (Rep.), Iowa; Ingalls (Rep.), Kansas; McCreery (Dem.), Kentucky; Dennis Missouri; Jones (Rep.), Nevada; Wadleigh (Rep.), New Hampshire; Conkling (Rep.), New York; Merriman (Dem.), North Carolina; Matthews (Rep.), Ohio; Mitchell (Rep.), Oregon; Cameron (Rep.), Pennsylvania; Patterson (Rep.), South Carolina; Morrill (Rep.), Vermont; Howe (Rep.), Wisconsin. The Louisiana seat now in controversy became vacant in 1879. Of the outgoing Senators eighteen are Republicans and six Democrats.

MARKET REPORT.

The San Francisco market this week shows an improvement over last week. Flour and the cereals have all advanced in price. Wool is about the only article that drags in the market. The Fall clip, is estimated at 16,000,000 to 17,000,000 pounds, and probably two-thirds of this clip is in the warehouses are already filled, therefore the cheapness of wool.

In our Reno market there has been no change of note in the way of fluctuating prices. Trade of course has been livelier on account of the Fair.

At Cambridge, Mass., United States bonds amounting to $20,000, and a large amount of town and railroad bonds, have been stolen. A reward is offered for their recovery.

Ex-Treasurer Parker is in jail at Columbia, South Carolina. He refuses further disclosures now. The Court in which the ex-officials are to be tried convenes on Monday next. Judge Townsend, a Republican, presides. The petit jury is composed of 19 colored and 17 white persons—15 Democrats and 21 Republicans.

A most gigantic swindle was brought to light at Kansas City, on the 18th, by the arrest of J. R. Hall, Edward L. Stevens and General Miller, on a requisition from Governor Hubbard, of Texas, on a charge of forging land titles and issuing deeds for large tracts of land in Texas. The swindle originated with Hall and a man named Thomas Tullis, of Austin.

L. F. Wyman, warden of the Nebraska penitentiary at Lincoln, has been removed by Governor Garber, on charges of a character, it is said, too vile for publication.

A dispatch from Washington says: The rumors of probable trouble with Mexico, or any disposition to precipitate it are utterly sensational and baseless.

W. H. Bond has retracted his charges against Colonel D. R. Anthony, Postmaster at Leavenworth, Kansas.

A dispatch from Washington says: The War Department is in a quandary concerning the disposition to be made of the Nez Perces. They will be quartered somewhere near civilization under guard this Winter, and in the Spring be disposed of permanently.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Races—Last Day.

At 2:30 this afternoon the first race of the day was called. It was a trotting race for $300; class 2:23; mile heats, three in five. First horse $500, second $200, third $100. H. O. Dell entered St. Helena, G. F. Jacobs entered May Howard, L. J. Ross named Tommy Gates. May Howard was the favorite in the pools and easily won the race in three straight heats. Time: 2:27, 2:31 and 2:30.

Second race, also trotting race, was then called. Purse $500; mile heats; three in five; free for all. First horse $300, second $200, third $100. J. Z. Nichols entered Lulu, J. F. Myers entered Jewess, H. W. Higgins named Tom Morgan, Matt Davis entered Muggins. Nicodemus did not arrive from California. Pools sold in favor of Tom Morgan, and first heat was won by him. Time 2:40 1/4.

Betting was quite lively on account of to-day being the last day, rather than on the merits of the races.

The attendance was large in the afternoon, but of course not so large as on the previous day, because the ladies tournament drew many who would not care to attend the races to-day.

AT THE FAIR GROUNDS.—This morning the stock parade was very fine. All the stock was out and marched and counter-marched before the Judges Stand. Thursday morning the ribbons had been tied on, but to-day final decision for the premiums to be awarded were made by the various committees. The attendance was large and the interest taken was not from the lighter class, but by men interested in the solid business of a fair. There were men from all parts of the State and California. They came to compare stock, to learn the excellent points of each particular kind, and to profit by the experience and knowledge thus gained. In Monday's paper will appear the list of the premiums given and the names of the owners, as well as the stock bearing the judgment of the Awarding Committee.

EQUESTRIENNE PRIZE.—Last evening the formal announcement of the committee of prize awards and judges of the skill and grace of the lady competitors at the Fair Grounds was made by President C. C. Batterman. To-day the ladies chose their premiums. Miss McKissick took the elegant silver urn, Miss Newman the tea set, Miss Van Sickle the cake basket, Miss Marsh the boa and fur (gift of Messrs. Grey & Isaacs), Mrs. Borland takes the fifth prize, Miss Sykes the sixth, Miss Haller the seventh, Miss Johnson the eighth, Miss Crow the ninth and a choice of the three remaining premiums on account of an accident yesterday at the track. Her saddle stirrup broke.

Miss Sykes, Miss Haller, Miss Johnson and Miss Crow have not yet made choice of their premiums. They will probably do so this evening. The two remaining prizes will also be disposed of by choice or otherwise.

TO-NIGHT.—This evening Miss Mayhew appears in Bret Harte's celebrated drama "Miss." She will be supported by the entire troupe under the excellent management of Mr. J. M. Ward. Miss Mayhew, as a popular actress, is a success and draws full houses wherever she performs. Reserved seats are nearly all taken and the entertainment this evening at Smith's Academy of Music will, beyond a doubt, be witnessed and appreciated by a crowded house. Admission one dollar.

THE FAIR BALL.—The A. M. & M. Society's grand ball last night at Smith's Academy of Music, was attended by about 75 couple. The music was excellent, and everything passed off very pleasantly; it could not be otherwise with such good management. Dancing was kept up until 3 o'clock in the morning. Much credit is due the managers for the manner in which the party was conducted, and all who attended enjoyed themselves.

"GOSSIP AND SCANDAL."—The above is the subject of the Sunday eve lecture at the Methodist Church to-morrow eve. The pastor, Rev. W. C. Gray, is preparing a series of free Sunday eve lectures, one to be delivered each Sunday eve. The subject for Sunday eve, Oct. 28th, will be "On Gossiping About."

Exhibits at the Pavilion.

The exhibit at the pavilion seems more imposing at each visit. It is very large while the space into which it is crowded is entirely inadequate, several articles not appearing at all. Among the number is a fine open top buggy, by Harry Bernard.

S. A. Hamlin, superintendent of the Crystal Peak Lumber Co., exhibits several large lumber specimens, one of which we noticed was 16 feet long, 4 feet wide and one and a quarter inches thick.

Mrs. Noyes, Mrs. Cross, Mrs. Moshier, Mrs. Manning and others show bread, cakes, etc., which prove these ladies the best of bread makers.

Jacob Zech, manufacturer in San Francisco of the Zech piano and organ, exhibits a fine piano and organ, both his own make.

J. W. McBride of Reno, several fine sewing machines of the Singer manufacture.

Warner & Son of Virginia City, a fine sleigh and open top buggy.

Mrs. B. B. Norton, fine display of flowering plants.

There are many other articles, had we space to mention them, which more than merit such mention. But the pavilion display does not require any praise at our hands. It speaks volumes for itself. The lady and gentleman exhibitors have already the thanks of all. They have done nobly and reap their reward not so much in the premiums awarded as by the stimulus given to every branch represented. The entire Fair has proven a grand success. Our people have received lessons and impressions which they cannot forget. We have received the heaven and to the future we look for yet grander and far reaching results. Every officer has done his duty; each has placed his shoulder to the wheel and what was desired has been accomplished. We as a State have just reason to congratulate ourselves upon the work done. There has been no meretricious display; we have seen work of taste, care and superior skill and excellence exhibited.

TO-MORROW NIGHT AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—To-morrow evening the drama of "Inshavogue" will be presented by the Ward Dramatic Co., assisted by Miss Mayhew, at Smith's Academy of Music. A well presented drama with a good moral is more effective for good in a community than a dozen sermons. Of course we all have more or less prejudice about a theatrical performance on Sunday evening; but why? If its effects, morally speaking, are good, why should we not go? If otherwise, the performance should not be presented on any evening of the week. We are far from encouraging anything immoral; but let us know first that it is improper, and if so it is equally improper at any time.

This evening the best looking lady in the pavilion receives the fine work box and writing desk combined. The managers propose no burlesque about it; nor will votes be bought and sold nor charges made to vote. The box cost $25 and is of most artistic design and beauty.

PERSONAL.—Henry Duffy and Mr. Mann, two Virginia Enterprise types, called upon us this morning. We remember Mr. Duffy in years past as a fellow apprentice and schoolmate, and know him to be a "good one" at the "case." Both gentlemen returned to Virginia this evening.

Miss Sadie Sykes last evening received the $40 Dolman given by Mrs. Julia Prescott for the finest dressed lady at the Fair ball. The judges were three gentlemen.

LOST.—This morning, between Steamboat and Reno, a lady's small satchel. The finder will please leave it at the Lake House or at Steamboat.

The performance of "Kathleen Maveurneen" by the Ward troupe, assisted by Miss Mayhew, was very fine and was witnessed by an appreciative audience.

Three good looking young ladies the other day stood beside a grocery sign which read: "Don't squeeze these peaches."

A dispatch to the Silver State conveys the intelligence that M. B. Hayes, the man shot by Pierce in Tuscarora a short time since, died at that place Wednesday night.

Services in all the churches will commence at 7 o'clock on Sunday evenings.

The case of Booth vs. Wheeler was called for trial to-day in the District Court. Judgment by default was entered against defendant. Court again on Monday.

The New Orleans Minstrels gave a good performance last evening to a full house. This evening comes the Murphy and Webster benefit. These gentlemen should be greeted with a large attendance.

TO RANCHMEN.—Wanted to purchase for cash, seventy-five to one hundred and twenty-five tons good alfalfa hay. Address stating lowest cash price delivered. A. B. C. P. O. box 274.

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS.—Abe Presley has reopened his store in Chelovich's building on Commercial Row. He has a well assorted stock of gents' furnishing goods, also a large stock of the best make of coats and shoes. He will be pleased to greet his old friends at his new stand; and also respectfully solicits the patronage of all who wish to purchase anything in his line. Give him a call. Commercial Row, Reno. 9-21

An abundance of good pasturage can be had upon application at this office.

WANTED.—A good girl to do general housework in a family of two. Wages, $25 per month. Apply at Mrs. Hobart's, one block east of the Court House. 10-11f

TO THE RANCHER.—The Banner Mill Company, of Boca, Cal., have determined to make a specialty of fencing, and with that view offer to the ranchers of Washoe county a superior article of Red Fir, acknowledged to be the best lumber in any market for the purpose named. The price will be found another inducement in comparison with other varieties. Address, Banner Mill Co., or R. P. M. Greeley, Boca, Cal. No other mill company this side of the mountains has this variety of lumber for sale. 8-11f

Mrs. H. ANDERSON, Physician and Midwife. Office and residence on north side of Plaza street, between Peavine and Center streets, Reno. 8-101f

PENMANSHIP.—Who does not admire good penmanship? And how many wonder why it is that many cannot write well, when seeing handsome specimens of writing? It is conceded that much is owing to the pen used, and we can confidently recommend the COMPARISON PENS made by Joseph Mason, London, as among the very best. By sending $1.50 in currency to H. S. Crocker & Co., Sacramento, you can have one gross of these pens sent you by mail, postage paid. 9-20 ind&w

WATCHES!! JEWELRY!!

ROMAINE GOLD.

SO EXTENSIVELY WORN IN PARIS, and first discovered in 1870, by the celebrated French chemist, Mons. D. De Daince, who manufactured it into jewelry, and for five years sold it to the leading jewelers of Paris for Solid Gold. In 1875, when his secret became known, ten of the manufacturing jewelers established a stock company, with a capital of $10,000,000 for the purpose of manufacturing Romaine Gold Jewelry and Watches. With this immense capital and the aid of improved machinery, they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of jewelry at less than one-tenth the cost of solid gold, and of a quality and color which makes it impossible even for experts to detect it from the genuine.

We have secured the exclusive agency of the United States and Canada, for the sale of all goods manufactured from this metal, and in order to introduce them in the most speedy manner, have put up assorted samples as given below, which we will sell at one-tenth the retail value until January 1st, 1878. Read the list.
